If I am accepted on this short term mission team:

1. I agree to attend the Mandatory Preparation Meetings. (All teams will be required to attend these meetings)
2. I agree to pray for my team, my church and the people we will be serving. I will also be praying for God to prepare me spiritually and physically for this trip. I understand that I will need to be flexible and teachable towards my leaders, my team, and my host culture.
3. I agree to submit to West Cabarrus Church, the team leaders, and the in-country missionaries as they do their best to lead the team through this adventure in faith.
4. I understand that it is my responsibility to raise funds for my short-term mission trip. I understand that WCC does not sponsor fundraisers, but I am free, as an individual, to hold a fundraiser, send out letters to family and friends asking for prayer and financial support and or contribute my resources to cover the cost of my trip.
5. Upon my return, I am committed to sharing what God teaches me on this short-term mission trip with the people that send me, particularly my family, friends, and my church congregation.

I have read and answered the questions on the application, and I verify that all my comments are true. I agree to the above statements, as well. I understand that failure to fulfill this commitment may result in loss of money or dismissal from the mission team.
